Using a single-cup coffee maker is usually as simple as popping in a coffee pod and selecting your desired mug size. You also need to know how to fill the unit's water reservoir so that coffee brewing is possible. Single-cup coffee makers have gained popularity among homeowners as well as workplaces and businesses, so it's good to understand their use even if you don't own one yourself.

How to Use a Keurig Single Cup Coffee Maker | Hunker

A: Answer To use your own coffee you must purchase the Universal k-cup reusable pod. For this Keurig you must remove the lower portion of the plastic pod that clips on. See the paper instructions that come with that pod. You must also pop out from the coffee maker the plastic assembly that holds the pod in place while brewing in order to use this reusable pod.
