Vygotsky scaffolding is part of the education concept "zone of proximal development" or ZPD. The ZPD is the set of skills or knowledge a student can't do on her own but can do with the help or guidance of someone else. It's the skill level just above where the student currently is. ZPD is often depicted as a series of concentric circles.

Vygotsky Scaffolding: What It Is and How to Use It

Education researcher Eileen Raymond says, "The ZPD is the distance between what children can do by themselves and the next learning that they can be helped to achieve with competent assistance." So let's get to some scaffolding strategies you may or may not have tried yet.
